

Hymn

Holy is He who preceded the faithful, the
Firstborn of many to rise from the grave,
Conquering that which from Adam has shackled us,
Crucified ere these foundations were laid.

Blessed is He who established the covenant,
Binding salvation to Abraham's seed,
Promising hope to the ones who expectantly
Wait on the blood to for them intercede.

Worthy is He who for us became sacrifice.
Christian bear witness: the Lamb who was slain,
Risen in majesty, seated in heaven, where
Death and defeat may no longer remain.

Perfect is He who has laid our foundations with Stone that can never be broken or stained,
Daily transforming us into His image, with Fellowship 'twixt us so sweetly regained.

Holy is He who has pleaded our case with His
Justice and mercy supporting our cause.
Holy are we when the blood of the Savior has Cleansed us from sin and has covered our flaws.

Jonathan Sanford